

Enroll in a fun class and add functional skills to your resume!

In today's global world, learn language and cultural strategies to help communications be more successful.

STUDY JAPANESE!

Nearby at CARMEL campus

(Two doors east of Carmel Public Library, Brown brick building across from Carmel High School's main circle drive.)

This effective crash course in Conversational Japanese runs
6 Thursdays, February 18—March 25, 2010 6:30-9 p.m.

The class is for the true beginner or those who have learned a little Japanese or need a refresher course. Students who've enjoyed this class have been busy executives, world travelers, manufacturing professionals, technical types, artists, grandparents and even teens, as young as age 11. The instructor is seasoned in teaching Japanese to people of all ages and nationalities with varying interests in Japan. This course is highly rated! (Teens are welcome w/parent/guardian registration. Some parents enroll with their student, others just help with transportation...IUPUI is family friendly.)

CLN

IUPUI Community Learning Network

"Your lifelong learning Connection"

REGISTER TODAY, Visit <http://www.cln.iupui.edu>

Click the Continuing Studies button. Open the Course Catalog, then select Foreign Language and choose Conversational Japanese. (Course #101C38A00) or CALL 317-278-7600 to register.